Come join us for
Sisterhood Game Night in the Sukkah!
October 10, 2017 at 7-9 pm
You provide the games (BYOG), cocktails(BYOB)
and we will provide the snacks!
Come and relax, play games and socialize with your sisters
under the stars in our amazing sukkah.
Hope to see you there!
Please RSVP by 10/8 to sisterhood@avodatshalom.net

*Although this is a free event, a donation of $5 for the Cantor Ronit Scholarship Fund would be very much appreciated!

Temple Avodat Shalom

Rabbi Borovitz Shabbaton

Saturday, October 14th –
9:15 am

The World's Recognition of Jewish National Rights in the Land of Israel: Learning lessons for today from two significant anniversaries.

The Balfour Declaration of November 1917 that led to the British Mandate – 9:15 am

Shabbat Services – 10:30 am

The UN Partition Plan of November 1947 that led to Israel's Independence – 11:45 am

Rabbi Neal Borovitz will lead us in a study of these significant texts and help us understand the historic context in which they were issued, and the ramifications that these two declarations have had, on the course of Jewish history in particular and international events in general, over the last one hundred years.
