When talking to a friend is not enough...
Life's challenges can often leave us feeling lost. Whether one is new to a community or a long time resident, loneliness, stress and depression can be the natural result of our over-scheduled lives. Jewish Family and Children's Services is available to help you come to terms with some of these issues, and to develop coping strategies. Whether someone is experiencing financial stress, marital discord or other relationship challenges, help is available. We are also available to consult with and for children who may be going through life stresses of their own. All calls are confidential and are handled with sensitivity to personal values and differing cultures. Please feel free to contact Paula Rozner at 201-978-2529 or paular@jfcsnnj.org. The agency link is www.jfcsnnj.org.

Shabbat Book Discussion & Potluck Lunch
July 8, 2017

On Saturday, July 8, Rabbi Jacobson will lead a discussion of the novel As a Driven Leaf, by Milton Steinberg. The discussion will take place after the Shabbat service, at 12:00. At that time, we will share a potluck lunch. As a Driven Leaf, a classic of American Jewish literature, is an historical novel about Elisha ben Abuyah, a Talmudic sage who struggled between faith and reason, between his religion and Greco-Roman cultural influences, all issues that still resonate today. Please join us.
